

The activity of Museke Foundation mainly focuses on health and social sectors.

The Foundation is active both in Italy and abroad, with particular attention to developing countries. On the basis of existing contacts and priorities, the Foundation has decided to start working in Burundi.